Designated Teacher

DLT Membership ...

Membership enables privileged access to Continuing Professional Development workshops...

“Continuing Professional Development” is increasingly recognised as a measure of quality control in any business or creative initiative . With the establishment of KLVC Orkney and the greater public awareness of Linklater Voice, the quality preservation of the method is of paramount importance. The Kristin Linklater Voice Centre is the quality control centre. The method deepens, shifts, opens new doors as the field of mind-body function ceaselessly brings new understanding. The designated practitioners of the method and the source teacher need to stay in touch to ensure the highest quality of teaching.
